

Half Moon Bay, California

Choose your path!

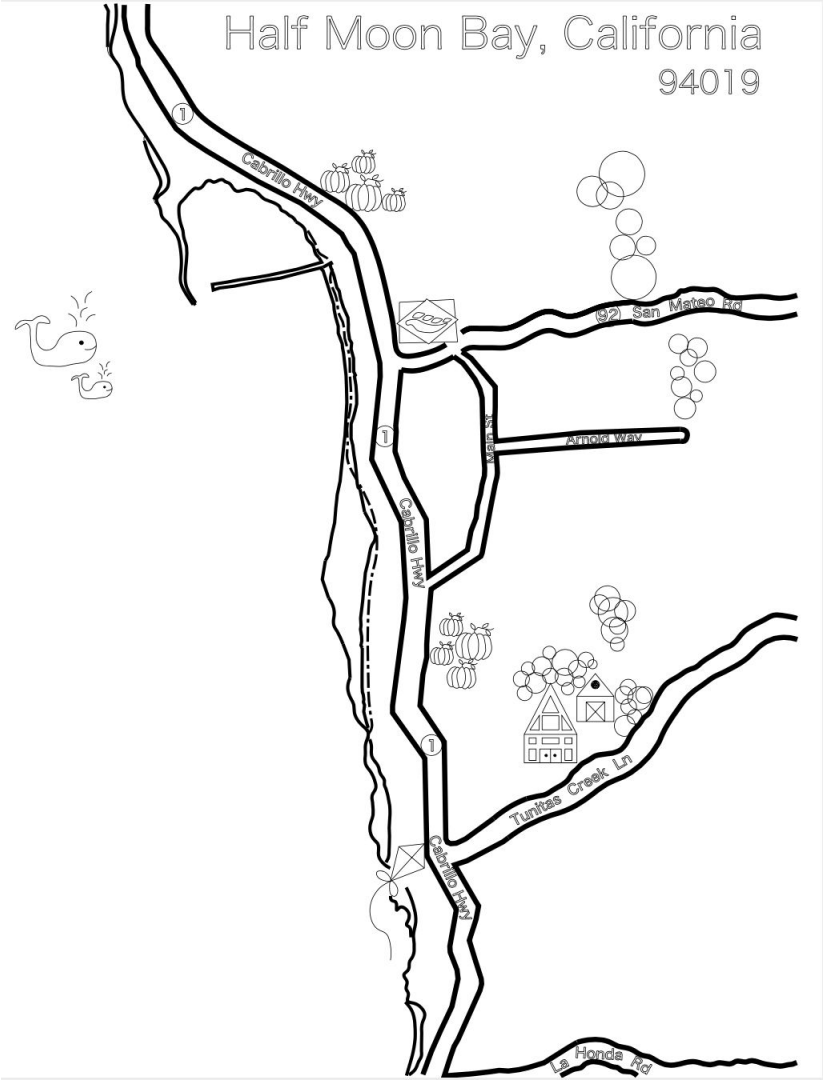

START!

You're driving down
San Mateo Rd
towards the coast.

Which way do you
turn when you reach Cabrillo Hwy?

Left or Right

Heading South! Great choice.

You drive down the coast and pass through Main Street which is lined with shops and boutiques, and bakeries and diners.

Do you want to stop and look around ?

YES! I love shopping and I'd love a muffin.

Nah, I rather see what the coast has to offer later

Right!

Headed up the coast of California, you pass by a local grocery store called New Leaf.

Are you hungry?

Yes, starving for something to eat!

Nah, I rather drive up the coast to see what's happening!

Yum! You just stopped at New Leaf and got some local strawberries and a Nutty Buddy
smoothie!

Where to next?

Keep heading up
the coast!

Turn around and head
into the other direction.

Headed up north on hwy 1, you pass by small farms that sell local produce and you pass by a parking lot that leads you to the California Coastal Trail...

Stop at the farm stand

Stretch your legs and walk the Coastal Trail

Continue driving

Awesome! You love fresh produce!

You buy a jar of honey, lettuce, and a some cherries

Time to get back on the road!

You continue driving up the coast and are interested in the Pillar Point Harbor sign.

So many surfers!

You ask one of the surfers why this is such a hot spot to surf. “Mavericks! These waves are the best in the world, but very very dangerous. A few surfing legends have died in these waves. Common, I’ll show you around.”

You follow this surfer towards the beach.

You stop suddenly. WOW. These waves are massive and so far away!

Do you dare to surf?

Oh, no no no no. I'll just watch.

Sure! Looks fun, though I've never surfed before

Now look who's the daredevil!

Your surfer dude friend lends you an extra board and wetsuit. And you paddle yourself out to the waves.

Adrenaline starts to build up.

You sit on your board and start chatting with the other surfers.

Next

They ask you if you've surfed before, and you say no. Their faces are confused... "you know this IS Mavericks?" they ask.

You keep up the small talk, then you spot a wave coming. You follow the lead of the other surfers

Paddle, paddle, paddle, pop up!

You're standing on the board-

CRASH!

You have been gulped up by the monstrous waves.

You keep fighting the waves, trying to find the surface, then BANG! You hit your head on the rocks-

... beep.... beep... beep

You wake up with an awful headache and are confused.
You find yourself stuck in a room and attached to tubes-- “what. happened?”

“You were surfing Mavericks and hit your head on a rock,” a surfer dude explains

A few weeks have passed and you have recovered from broken ribs, concussion, and a broken arm.

You are allowed to go home!

Safety never takes a day off! Good choice.
These waves can sometimes reach 100 feet, but usually they're 35-60 feet!

You find a spot and sit on the bluff. You watch surfers get pummeled by waves and decide you've had enough.

Walking by the harbor you see a sign that says
“FRESH CRAB”

Do you stop?

YES! Crab fest!!

Nah, I don't like crab, but let's check them out

Holy Moly Macaroni!

These crabs are the size of a horse!

You purchase one, then feel sorry because you've realized you have a long car ride home. When the fisherman isn't looking, you drop your crab back into the water.

Stay safe little crab!

Wasn't Moonside Bakery adorable? The blueberry muffins are delicious!

Back on the road! As you drive down south, you pass by fields of yellow mustard flowers and oreo cows

Is it picture time?

Wouldn't miss it! snap snap

Nah, not enough room to park my car!

You keep driving down the coast and you pass by Bob's Pumpkin Patch!

Do you stop?

Wouldn't miss it! I love pumpkining!

Let's keep driving!

Great choice! Wohoo pumpkins!

You purchase a few small pumpkins, even though it is tempting to buy a giant.

You remember that Half Moon Bay is known for its giant pumpkins so you head back and buy a 128 lb giant.

Let's keep driving on hwy 1

What lovely pictures you took, and there was a rainbow!

As you keep driving down the coast, you pass by Bob's Pumpkin Patch!

Do you stop?

I love Pumpkins! Plus I can pick my own. And there is a corn maze!

I'll stop later, looks too crowded right now.

As you keep driving down the coast, you are curious and turn down Tunitas Creek Ln.

You see a state beach sign, but you don't see a direct path that'll get you to the beach.

Nah, I don't want to get lost.

You are curious, but hesitant.

You only live once! Lets go!

Do you stop?

Great choice! I love your adventure spirit.

After searching around, you find this hidden path, you still got time to back out.

I love the beach. Let's do it!

I'm outta here!

I love your enthusiasm!

The beach is beautiful and you have it all to yourself!

It's your secret beach.

Time well spent. Time to head back up!

You keep driving
down Tunitas Creek
Ln and you pass by an animal sanctuary on the left called Sweet Farms.

PYO strawberries!

Keep heading down
the road.

Unfortunately, you have to become a member to PYO
strawberries for free.

Next time!

Back on the road!

Your long distant cousin lives at 340 Tunitas Creek Ln, you start to head up her driveway.

Gosh it's half a mile long!

Turn around.

Let's keep going! It would be nice to see your cousin and her farm!

You turn your car around, but then you see another car... it's your cousin! Trapped.

Nice try. She's got you now and begs you to come up and see the farm!

You can't back out now.

You follow the eucalyptus lined driveway. Wow!
These trees must be hundreds of years old!

This road feels so magical.

Your cousin Mari meets you at the end of the driveway and gives you a big bear hug! She's so thrilled that you have finally come to visit.

She wants to show you around the WHOLE farm, but it's already 4 pm and you have to be home by sundown.

Next

Mari gives you three choices.

PYO olallieberries

Trust Mari in driving you to the 'top of the hill' in the John Deere Gator

Visit the animals!

Keeping it safe, you are shown the animals

Peacocks, goats, chickens, ducks, cats and a donkey!

Do you want to feed them?

Yes!

No, I don't want to get my fingers bit!

Your loss, the animals are enjoying the pettings, but they keep looking for treats!

Are you sure you don't want to feed?

Yes, I'm too afraid to feed them.

Okay, okay, let's feed them!

As you pet the animals, you accidentally step on a wasps nest!

They aren't too happy):

Quick, what do you do?

I'm outta here

I'll. Be. A. Statue.

BZZZ BZZZ BZZZ

AHHH! You get stung so. many. Times.

You give up on being a “statue” and run towards your cousin’s house. Crying.

Evil wasps!

Next

Your cousin tends to your wounds. Each sting looks the size of a BASEBALL!

You are forced to stay until the wounds get to “normal size”

Ice
Ice
Ice
Ice
Ice

After a few hours, your wounds look better so you're allowed to leave. You thank your cousin for the hospitality.

Next

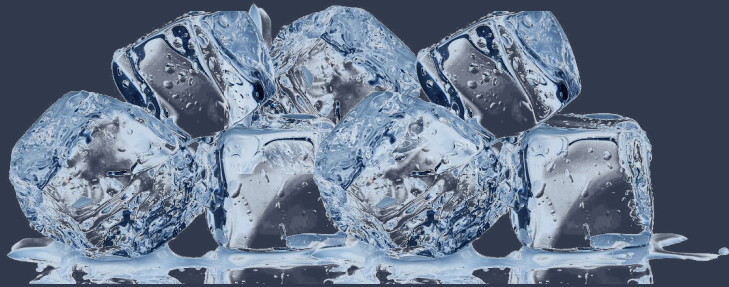

As you head back to the car, you promise to visit again. You hug your cousin then drive back down the eucalyptus grove.

What a day you had.

You run so fast and jump over the fence!
Only a few wasps followed. You get stung TWICE

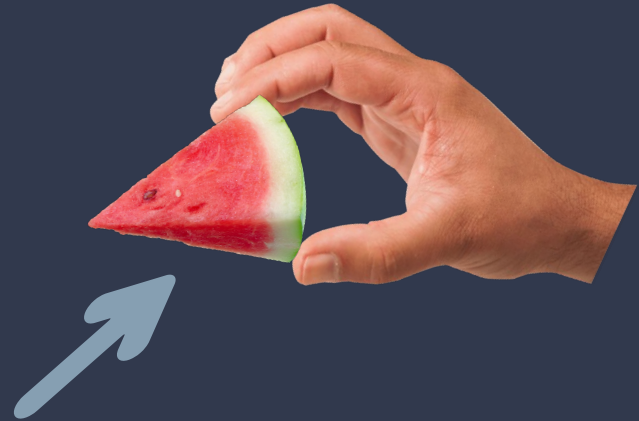

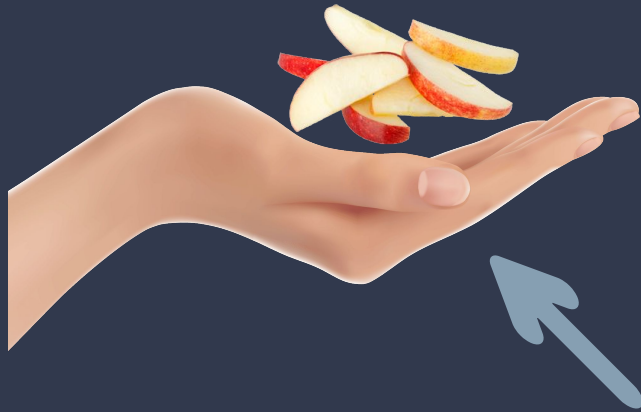

Mari brings you into the house and gives you some
ice

It's getting late and you've got a long drive ahead of you.

Excellent choice! The animals love apples and watermelon that you've brought.

How do you hold out your hand?

Correct!

The animals enjoyed the delicious treat
you gave them (:

Next

Ouch!

The goat just bit you, but it didn't hurt too bad because goats don't have upper front teeth!

Sun's setting. Time to start heading home):

After petting and feeding the animals, you lost track of time.

The sun is setting and it's time to say goodbye to the animals!

Wow, you really have faith in Mari's ability to drive (;

Her dogs decide to come along as well

You arrive to the top of the hill and are shocked at how pretty it is!

Next

Do you want to drive?

YES!!!

No thanks

You are driving!

Mari of course looks nervous as you race around the fields.

“STOPPPPP!” Mari cries out!

Quick! What do you do?

Break and listen

or

Continue driving

Wowow. Close one, you almost drove into a ditch!

Next

“There’s a ditch right there!” But you’re too late and didn’t break in time.

The front of the Gator falls in and the wheels stop moving.

Mari glares at you.

At least Mari knew what to do. She pulled out the winch in the front and attached it to the closest tree.

Pushing a button, the gator slowly got pulled out of the ditch.

Thank goodness nothing bad happened

Parked at the highest peak of the hill, you're so happy you came up here!

As the sun sets in the west, you realize it's time to go home. On the way down, Mari lets you drive.

Olalieberries! Interesting, you've never tasted this berry, but you are curious.

Mari is siked to show you the olalieberry patch her father made.

She picks a blackberry looking berry and tells you to try it.

She's grinning and looking suspicious.

Do you try it?

No no!

Hmm, what do I got to loose

“Your loss,” Mari says, then pops the berry in her mouth, making a sour face. You both laugh.

You pick a few more berries then it's time for you to get back on the road home... who knows how long your drive will be.

AHHHHH, sour!

Mari laughs at you and explains that their berries are used for jams, pies, and brandy making.

You decide it's almost time to leave, so you head back to the car.

As you head back to the car, you promise to visit again. You hug your cousin then drive back down the eucalyptus grove.

Your visit was short, but exciting.

You drive back the way you came.
Back on hwy 1

ACCELERATE

You see a deer on the side of the road.
QUICK, what do you do?

BREAKKKKKK!

You quickly break just in time for the deer to run ACROSS the hwy 1!

Congratulations, you saved the deer's' life

Enough excitement for the day, you drive carefully back home.

ACCELERATE?!

You accelerate and thankfully the deer got spooked and ran back into the woods.

You are so darn lucky.

Enough excitement for the day, you drive carefully back home.

Home

You arrive home and are exhausted from the hours(or days) of driving.

What a crazy adventure.
